It is the responsibility of all HCC secondary students and older to remember their lessons. HCC primary school students will be collected by their teacher from their classroom for their lessons.

Information for HCC students: In some cases, lessons times need to be changed. For lessons during school, the ACA will endeavour to do all possible to inform you of this in advance, however very occasionally this is not possible. In this case, the student needs to be aware that the normal lesson time on such occasions will be different. For lessons after school, you will be notified of any late changes in lessons by phone.

The ACA does everything in its power to be aware of HCC school excursions etc (as written in HCC school newsletters / on the HCC website) that may conflict with ACA lessons and make appropriate changes in the lesson schedule. Please be aware that ultimately it is the student / parent’s responsibility to inform the ACA of any absences in order to reschedule lessons.
