

HEATHERTON

CHRISTIAN COLLEGE

CHILD SAFE

POLICY

2017

Introduction

Heatherton Christian College is committed to promoting and protecting the interests and safety of children. We have zero tolerance for child abuse.

Everyone working at Heatherton Christian College is responsible for the care and protection of children and reporting information about child abuse.

Purpose

The purpose of this policy is:

- To facilitate the prevention of child abuse occurring within Heatherton Christian College.
- To prevent child abuse within Heatherton Christian College.
- To ensure that all parties are aware of their responsibilities for identifying possible occasions for child abuse and for establishing controls and procedures for preventing such abuse and/or detecting such abuse when it occurs.
- To provide guidance to staff / volunteers / contractors as to action that should be taken when they suspect any abuse within or outside of the College.
- To provide a clear statement to staff / volunteers / contractors forbidding any such abuse.
- To provide assurance that any and all suspected abuse will be reported and fully investigated.

Policy

Heatherton Christian College is committed to promoting and protecting at all times the best interests of children involved in its programs.

All children, regardless of their gender, race, religious beliefs, age, disability, sexual orientation and family or social background, have equal rights to protection from abuse.

Heatherton Christian College has zero tolerance for child abuse. Everyone working at Heatherton Christian College is responsible for the care and protection of the children within our care and reporting information about suspected child abuse.

Child protection is a shared responsibility between the Heatherton Christian College, all employees, workers, contractors, associates and members of the Heatherton Christian College community.

Heatherton Christian College will consider the opinions of children and use their opinions to develop child protection policies.

Heatherton Christian College supports and respects all children, staff and volunteers. Heatherton Christian College is committed to the cultural safety of Aboriginal children and those from culturally and / or linguistically diverse backgrounds, and to providing a safe environment for children living with a disability.

If any person believes a child is at immediate risk of abuse, telephone 000.

Please refer to the Heatherton Christian College Child Protection and Mandatory Reporting Policy for details of the reporting process.

Procedures and Responsibilities

Board

The Board of Heatherton Christian College has ultimate responsibility for the detection and prevention of child abuse and is responsible for ensuring that appropriate and effective internal control systems are in place. The Board is also responsible for ensuring that appropriate policies and procedures and a Child Safety Code of Conduct are in place. (See Appendix 1)

Principal

The Principal of Heatherton Christian College is responsible for:

- Ensuring that the procedures of the Heatherton Christian College Child Protection and Reporting Policy are followed;
- Ensuring that all staff, contractors and volunteers are aware of relevant laws, College policies and procedures, and the College's Child Safety Code of Conduct;
- Ensuring that all adults within the Heatherton Christian College community are aware of their obligation to report suspected sexual abuse of a child in accordance with these policies and procedures;
- Ensuring that all staff, contractors and volunteers are aware of their obligation to observe the Code of Conduct (particularly as it relates to child safety);
- Providing support for staff, contractors and volunteers in undertaking their child protection responsibilities.

Coordinators

All Coordinators must ensure that they:

- Promote child safety at all times;
- Assess the risk of child abuse within their area of control and eradicate / minimise any risks to the extent possible;
- Educate employees about the prevention and detection of child abuse; and
- Facilitate the reporting of any inappropriate behavior or suspected abusive activity.

The College Executive should be familiar with the types of abuse that might occur within their area of responsibility and be alert for any indication of such conduct.

All Staff / Volunteers / Contractors

All staff / volunteers / contractors share in the responsibility for the prevention and detection of child abuse, and must:

- Familiarise themselves with the relevant laws, the Code of Conduct, Heatherton Christian College's policy and procedures in relation to child protection, and comply with all requirements;
- Report any reasonable belief that a child's safety is at risk to the relevant authorities (such as the police and / or the state-based child protection service) and fulfill their obligations as mandatory reporters;
- Report any suspicion that a child's safety may be at risk to their superior (or, if their superior is involved in the suspicion, to a responsible person at the College); and
- Provide an environment that is supportive of all children's emotional and physical safety.

Employment of New Personnel

Heatherton Christian College undertakes a comprehensive recruitment and screening process for all workers and volunteers which aims to:

- Promote and protect the safety of all children under the care of Heatherton Christian College;
- Identify the safest and most suitable people who share Heatherton Christian College's values and commitment to protect children; and
- Prevent a person from working at Heatherton Christian College if they pose a risk to children.

Heatherton Christian College requires all workers / volunteers to pass through the College's recruitment and screening process prior to commencing their engagement with Heatherton Christian College.

Persons applying for a role as a teacher with Heatherton Christian College must be registered with the Victorian Institute of Teaching.

Heatherton Christian College may require applicants to provide a police check in accordance with the law and as appropriate before they commence working at Heatherton Christian College and during their time with Heatherton Christian College at regular intervals.

Once engaged, workers / volunteers must review and acknowledge their understanding of this policy.

Training and Supervision

Training and education is important to ensure that everyone in our organisation understands that child safety is everyone's responsibility.

Our College culture aims for all staff and volunteers (in addition to parents / carers and children) to feel confident and comfortable in discussing any allegations of child abuse or child safety concerns. We train our staff and volunteers to identify, assess and minimise risks of child abuse and to detect potential signs of child abuse.

We also support our staff and volunteers through ongoing supervision to:

- Develop their skills to protect children from abuse;
- Promote the cultural safety of Aboriginal children, the cultural safety of children from linguistically and / or diverse backgrounds, and the safety of children with a disability.

New employees and volunteers will be supervised regularly to ensure they understand our organisation's commitment to child safety and that everyone has a role to play in protecting children from abuse, as well as checking that their behaviour towards children is safe and appropriate (please refer to the Child Safe Code of Conduct to understand appropriate behaviour further).

Risk Management

Heatherton Christian College will ensure that child safety is a part of its overall risk management approach.

Grievance Procedures

Policies and Procedures are in place if staff, volunteers, children or their families have concerns about the College's leadership in regard to child safety. Positive, clear and effective processes for resolving grievances between the College and community members assists in the building of strong relationships, dispels anxiety and ultimately provides students with an enhanced learning environment. Please see the Heatherton Christian College Grievance Policy for additional information.

Review

This policy will be reviewed as part of the College's three-year review cycle. Following every reportable incident, a review shall be conducted to assess whether the College's child protection policies and procedures require modification to better protect children under the College's care.

Note:

Where the term 'Aboriginal' is used it refers to both Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander peoples. Indigenous is retained when it is part of the title of a report, program or quotation. Throughout this paper we refer to 'Aboriginal peoples' rather than 'Aboriginal people' to reflect the plurality and diversity of Victorian Aboriginal communities.
